

Games And More

Games & More:

Participants play board and card games, engage in speech and language practice through verbal and nonverbal communication, and enhance memory, attention, and problem-solving skills. The group setting fosters social interaction, turn-taking, cooperation, and relationship-building, which helps reduce isolation and boosts emotional well-being. Additionally, handling game pieces improves fine motor skills.

<< Back to programs