Programs

The Houston Aphasia Recovery Center (“HARC”) provides a communication skills program, education, advocacy, resources, and research for people with aphasia, their caregivers, and the Texas community.

HARC creates a safe haven where participants engage in supported communication, therapeutic socialization, recreation and camaraderie to fully participate in life.

> We offer our full-service programs at 5005 Woodway Drive, in Houston, TX, virtual and in person on Tuesday through Thursday.
